

TOWN OF SIDNEY

Bylaw Enforcement Officer (Regular, Full-Time)

This position is responsible for enforcing municipal bylaws, which includes: investigating bylaw complaints and infractions; gathering evidence and preparing reports on violations; attending and presenting evidence in Court; interpreting and explaining applicable bylaws, statutes and regulations; and assisting with bylaw preparation and amendments. This position requires effective public relations and dispute resolution skills and sound knowledge of municipal bylaws and court procedures. Applicants must have completed BC Justice Institute Bylaw Enforcement and Investigation Program Level I and have minimum of 3 years related experience. A detailed job description is available at www.sidney.ca. The salary for this position is $36.58 - 39.78/hr, plus comprehensive benefits package.

Submit resume, with cover letter, outlining qualifications and experience to: Attention: Town of Sidney, Competition #2018-U11, 2440 Sidney Avenue, Sidney, BC, V8L 1Y7 Fax: 250-656-7056 or email: careers@sidney.ca by 4:00 p.m., Friday, December 21, 2018.

Thank you for your interest, however only those Invited for an interview will be contacted.