

Access Awareness Day

Jeannette Hughes Accessibility Award

Nomination Form

Jeannette Hughes was a long-time resident of Sidney and an avid volunteer.

Her contributions to the community include nine years as a Town of Sidney Councillor, founder of the Annual Christmas Dinner at the Mary Winspear Centre, and organizer of Access Awareness Day, as well as being a tireless advocate for establishing Sidney as one of the most accessible communities on the island.

The Jeannette Hughes Accessibility Award is given, in her honour, to a local individual, organization or business that demonstrates the principles of the Social Planning and Research Council of BC (SparcBC) of inclusiveness and accessibility.

Presentation of the award will take place at Access Awareness Day on Saturday, June 6 at the SHOAL Centre in Sidney.

To nominate an individual, organization or business, please fill out the form on the back and submit it to:

Beacon Community Services
SHOAL Centre
10030 Resthaven Dr. Sidney V8L 3G4

Nominations must be received by May 15, 2015.

Name of Individual, Organization or Business:

Address: _____ Postal Code: _____

Phone: _____ Email: _____

Please describe how the nominee has contributed to inclusiveness and accessibility in Sidney. (Please add additional pages to this application if needed)

Nominator's Name: _____ Phone: _____

Please provide two references who can be contacted for details about the individual, organization or business.

Name: _____ Phone: _____

Name: _____ Phone: _____