

TOWN OF SIDNEY

Senior Building Official

The Town of Sidney, located on the Saanich Peninsula, is a vibrant waterfront community with a population of almost 12,000. The Town provides a high energy, creative and collegial work environment that supports balanced professional and personal activities.

In the Development Services Department, the position of Senior Building Official is responsible for: inspection of all buildings, sites, materials and workmanship to ensure compliance with all relevant codes, bylaws and regulations; issue building, plumbing and other various construction permits; provide technical guidance and advice respecting building construction; investigate alleged infractions of building and plumbing code regulations; and assist with various bylaw enforcement issues. This position plays a senior role in providing guidance to other staff and requires effective communication and interactions with contractors and the general public. Applicants must have a Level III certification from the Building Officials' Association of BC and a minimum of 5 years related municipal experience. A detailed job description is available on the Town's website - www.sidney.ca.

This is a regular, full-time Union position with a salary of $49.16-$53.43/hr, plus a comprehensive benefits package.
